Licensure Status of Health Services Reviewed by Certificate of Need In the State of Washington

	te

Medical-Surgical Licensed Beds Rehabilitation (Level I) Psychiatric (licensed) Obstetrics (Level II & III) Pediatrics (specialty)) Substance abuse (adult) Substance abuse (child/adolescent) Intensive care unit (ICU)/Critical care unit Neonatal ICU (Level II & III) Adult ICU

Specialty hospitals (heart, orthopedic, surgical)

Long Term Care

Burn Units (specialty)

Pediatric ICU

Subacute care (Medicare distinct part) Boarding homes (assisted living facility) Specialty care assisted living facility Intermediate care mentally retarded facility

Long term care hospital

Nursing homes Swing beds (>5 beds Residential care facility

Psychiatric residential treatment facility

Continuing care ret. center (5-yr Medicaid life care reg) Adult family homes

Medical Equipment

Cyber knives Computed tomography (CT) scanners

Gamma knives Hyperbaric chambers

Magnetic resonance image scanners

Positron Emission Tomography (PET) scanners

PET/CT scanners Linear accelerators Robotic Surgery Ultrasound

Heart-lung bypass machines

Outpatient Services

Freestanding emergency departments Freestanding radiological service centers

Behavioral health services

Opiate replacement treatment facilities (methadone)

Urgent care facilities Diagnostic imaging centers Oncology (Cancer) Treatment Centers

Substance Abuse Services Community clinic

Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
Licensed by DoH, no CoN required
Licensed by DoH, no CoN required
Licensed by DoH, no CoN required
Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
Licensed by DoH, no CoN required
Licensed by DoH, no CoN required
Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
No such category of facility (all hospitals lic. by DoH)
- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·

If within a hospital, Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
Licensed by DSHS, no CoN required
Licensed by DSHS, no CoN required
Licensed by DSHS, no CoN required
Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
Licensed by DSHS and subject to CoN
Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN
Licensed by DoH, no CoN required
Licensed by DoH, no CoN required
Licensed by DSHS and subject to CoN
Licensed by DoH no CoN required

No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN
No license by DoH, not subject to CoN

Note 1: reviewed in the State of Washington, italics referenced in statute as service to be considered.

Note 2: sub-services provided within a hospital are not uniquely licensed, instead covered under the general hospital license.

^{*}ASC require CoN if they are not within a private or group practice for its exclusive use.

^{} If they qualify these facilities may be licensed as part of a hospital.

Licensure Status of Health Services Reviewed by Certificate of Need In the State of Washington (continued)

Procedures

Diagnostic cardiac catheterization

Therapeutic cardiac catheterization

Elective angioplasty

Primary/emergent angioplasty

Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN

Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN

Licensed by DoH, no CoN required

No license required by DoH, no CoN required

No license required by DoH, No CoN required

No license required by DoH, No CoN required

Medicare-certified and subject to CoN

Surgery

Cardiac Licensed by DoH, no CoN required General Inpatient Licensed by DoH, no CoN required No license required by DoH, No CoN required*/ Outpatient (any freestanding ambulatory) No license required by DoH, No CoN required Outpatient (hospital) Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN Open heart (adult) Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN Open heart (pediatric) Solid organ transplant (adult) Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN Solid organ transplant (pediatric) Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN Bone marrow/stem cell transplants No license required by DoH, No CoN required*/ Single-specialty freestanding ambul. surgery centers Physician practice office-based surgery No license required by DoH, No CoN required

Other Services Home health care (Medicare/Medicaid eligible) Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN Hospice care centers (inpatient) Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN Hospice agencies (outpatient, Medicare/Medicaid) Licensed by DoH and subject to CoN Licensed by DoH, no CoN required Air ambulance No license by DoH not subject to CoN Information technology Medical office buildings No license by DoH not subject to CoN Emerging technology and new service categories No license by DoH not subject to CoN Research and demonstration projects No license by DoH not subject to CoN

Note 1: reviewed in the State of Washington, italics referenced in statute as service to be considered.

^{*}ASC require CoN if they are not within a private or group practice for its exclusive use.

^{} If they qualify these facilities may be licensed as part of a hospital.